As an on-the-job ally, YOU are invited to participate in this exclusive research focus group.

Why Participate:

- Contribute to groundbreaking research on allyship in the complex 2025 workplace
- Share your experiences and insights as an ally supporting POCs amidst new challenges
- Help shape personal strategies to drive inclusion forward—even as formal DEI structures recede
- Connect with like-minded peers striving to make a positive difference

This free focus group--facilitated by Dr. Cie Armstead--is part of a larger research study designed to explore the well-being of Professionals of Color in the workplace in 2025.
